

1 Timothy 3:1-16

One Point: Live so you do

1. If you owned a company what qualifications would you look for when hiring a manager?

Read v. 1-7

1. Why does Paul only talk about the way an overseer lives and not their duties?
 2. What is the danger of an overseer that doesn't manage his family well?

Read v. 8-13

1. If we have overseers/pastors why do we need deacons? If the position is different why are the expectations so similar?

Read v. 14-16

1. Paul clearly sees the importance of leadership conduct in the church. Why do you think it is important to know how people ought to conduct themselves?
 2. Maury stressed how leaders need to be sincere/genuine; what are some ways that you can tell if a church leader is sincere/genuine?
 3. As you read through the list of leadership qualities found in chapter 3, which positive ones would you like to see more in your life? What negative traits do you need to put behind you?

What I will be talking about

We need to find someone who can guide us to this place, a place where we live a hosios life, a life without blemish. When we do this, we will be a hoss. We will understand why we were created different than the other gender and we will live a life that is parallel to how God had it back in the Garden of Eden, in peace.
