

1 Corinthians 12:12-31

One Point: No one is insignificant in the kingdom of God

1. What's the craziest Pokemon Go story you've heard?

Read v. 12-18

1. How does diversity within the church help to maintain unity?
  2. How can the church foster both diversity and unity?

Read v. 19-26

1. What's the difference between a body that is functioning as a whole rather than as a group of individuals? What does it look like for the church to be working together?
  2. Have you ever treated someone like they have a lesser gift? If so, how?
  3. How does verse 26 help us to see everyone as significant in the kingdom of God? (Galatians 6:2)

Read v. 27-31

1. Am I envious of other people's gifts and talents? How can I seek to be content in the gift(s) God has given me?
  2. How can we grow to value and appreciate members of the body that have different gifts than we do?
  3. What can you do this week to show significance to others who are in the body?

What I will be talking about

Everyone is where God wants them, and belongs because He put them there. God has created everyone with a purpose, and we are where we are to serve that purpose, and have been gifted to do so.

There should not be any division among the body. Every part of the body is of equal importance, and we should treat it as such. The body is entirely interdependent upon its parts.
